

“WHO AM I?” SPIRITUALITY RESOURCE SEMINAR

An interactive full day seminar to launch the “Who Am I?” Spirituality Resource Education Package will be held on March 22nd, 2010 at the Treacy Centre, 126 The Avenue, Parkville. The seminar will provide an opportunity for registrants to participate in a program developed to assist you in training staff in your organization in the use of the Who Am I? Spirituality Resource.

All participants in the seminar will receive the education package (including powerpoint presentations, DVD role play, 5x copies of the resource, pdf versions of the worksheets, pdf version of the “Capturing the Conversation” template and a generic evaluation form) free once their seminar registration fee is paid. Additional copies will be made available at a discounted price on the day for participants only.

Copies of the education package will be made available for purchase at the full price to those who are unable to attend the seminar.

Registrations will open at the beginning of February however expressions of interest are now requested from anyone wishing to attend. As participant numbers are strictly limited, you are encouraged to express your interest as soon as possible to Kerrie Chambers via email: kerriec@pacific.net.au in order to receive a registration kit.

This is an opportunity to attend an interactive, interdisciplinary seminar that will assist you in having conversations about spirituality with patients and families, using the “Who Am I?” resource. It is also an opportunity to receive the Who Am I? Education Package for FREE as part of your registration.

So DON'T DELAY register your interest as places will fill fast.
